

GARDEN TUTORING

Confidential Report
To the Judges' Training Chairman of AIS Region 7

Apprentice judge _____
Garden _____ Date _____
Place _____ AIS Region _____

Please rate the Apprentice Judge on potentialities as demonstrated here, on the following, using E for Excellent, G for Good, F for Fair, P for Poor, and N for Not Applicable or Not Observed.

1. Understanding of the basic principles for evaluation of irises in the garden. _____
2. Ability to apply these basic principles. _____
3. Ability in judging Tall Bearded irises. _____
4. Ability in judging other bearded irises. _____
5. Ability in judging beardless irises. _____
6. Ability in judging new introductions. _____
7. Ability in judging seedlings. _____
8. General knowledge of introduced irises and their characteristics. _____
9. Ethics involved in judging. _____
10. Understanding of the Duties and Responsibilities of a judge. _____

In your honest opinion, do you feel that this apprentice, if accredited as an AIS judge, would be an asset to and a worthy representative of the American Iris Society? Yes _____ No _____

Can you conscientiously, as an AIS judge yourself, recommend such accreditation at this time? Yes _____ No _____

Remarks:

Signed: _____

Address: _____
